Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 22 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 22 recites the limitation "said first cylinder group" in line 4. Claim 22 recites the limitation "the group of operating valves" in line 5. Claim 22 recites the limitation "said second cylinder group" in line 5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-3,7-11,22 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hori (US Patent No. 6557505). Hori teaches an engine having 2 cylinder banks 9, see Figs. 11 and 12. A first group of cylinders having a first group of electrically operated valves operates in a rich mode. A second group of cylinders having a second group of electrically operated valves operates in a lean mode. Both the first and second groups perform combustion. Since the groups of valves in the different cylinder banks are “a different group” from each other they read on applicant’s claims. Also the first group of cylinders may be considered all the cylinders in one of the two banks, and the second group of cylinders, all of the cylinders in the other of the two banks. Applicant has not sufficiently defined in the claims what constitutes the groups of valves in one cylinder group being different than the group of valves in the second cylinder group, other than they are a different group.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Art Unit: 3747

7. Claims 4-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hori. Hori, applies as above, but does not appear to teach the number of valves claimed per cylinder. The number of valves per cylinder is considered to be an obvious matter of design choice and applicants is placed on official notice that the numbers of valves claimed per cylinder are known in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 12-21 and 24-27 are allowed.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
